Having Paid
More Than...

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars for fire losses and satisfied every claimant, it does seem we could please you. We sell insurance.

THAT ACTUALLY INSURES.

No company accepted in our agency unless they keep a deposit in the State for protection of policy holders.

BRIEFS AND PERSONALS.

A Daily Thought.

(From "Festus," by the Late Philip James Bailey.)
We live in deeds, not years; in thoughts, not breaths;
In feeling, not in figures on a dial;
We should count time by heart-throbs,
He never lives,
Who thinks most, feels the noblest, acts the best.

Miss Frances Lancaster returned yesterday to her Ashland home.

Miss Mamie McIlwaine, of Roanoke, is visiting Farmville relatives.

Mrs. Beckham is visiting her son, Dr. P. W. Beckham, of Farmville.

Mrs. Fay Kolner has returned to her home in Waynesboro, Va.

Miss Bessie Martin will leave today for a visit to Bedford City.

Miss Nell Gray returned to Richmond Tuesday.

Mr. Cleveland Elkins, Jr., of Buckingham, left yesterday for the West.

Mr. B. S. Hooper, of Lynchburg, is on a visit to relatives and friends.

Miss Lillian Lipscomb and her cousin, Miss Lillian Phillips, are visiting near Prospect.

The excursion to Richmond, Monday, carried very few people from Farmville.

Watch for the Who What When parade today between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock.

Mr. Alfred Morrison is visiting his mother, Mrs. Portia L. Morrison, of the Normal school.

No combination of circumstances can overcome the advantage of the right kind of advertising. Try the Herald.

Miss Louise Twitty, who has been visiting Miss May Paullett, returned last Tuesday to Suffolk.

Miss Ruby Ransom, a very charming young lady of Felsen neighborhood, was in town Wednesday.

Miss Estelle Davis, of Richmond, who is visiting Miss Henry Gills, will return home Monday.

Miss Grace Gibbs, of Manchester, who has been visiting Miss Ella Burger, returned home yesterday morning.

Mr. Spencer Burger left yesterday for Richmond to resume his medical studies.

Mr. James Elam and two daughters, of Columbia, Tenn., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Elam.

Mrs. Cornelius Thomas, of Portsmouth, is visiting her brother, Major John R. Martin.

Rev. Dr. Harding left yesterday for Enfield, N. C., where he expects to enjoy a month's vacation.

Misses Ruth, Hannah and Carrie Wilson, of Charlotte county, are visiting Mrs. James W. Womack.

Mrs. W. S. Ayres, of Richmond, is the guest of her friend, Mrs. Lella Spencer.

Miss Mary Wade left last week for Arvonia, Buckingham county, to teach in a graded school.

Hon. John J. Doane, State Superintendent of Public Instruction of Arkansas, is paying his old home and friends a pleasant visit.

Mr. J. M. Venable, has returned from an extended tour of the West. While in the West, he spent some time at the Yellow-Stone Park.

Col. C. M. Walker, accompanied by Mrs. Walker, Miss Mary B. Walker and Miss Ida Thackston, spent a portion of this week in Richmond.

Messrs. J. A. Spencer, J. E. Ligon, H. C. Crute, and Dr. J. M. Hamlet, members of the Farmville Fox Club, left Monday morning for a week's hunt in Cumberland county.

The offering of primings on the Farmville market this week has been small. It is the opinion of many that nearly all of this stock has been marketed.

The foundation for the new Norfolk & Western depot, has been completed, and the work of laying white brick is well under way, being almost a frame high. The work is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. There is yet considerable grading to be done.

The witicism of H. Tom Ward, Nat Blossom, Geo Weaver and Geo. Lam, bert kept a large audience in one continuous roar of laughter, and every patron of the Lyceum Theatre voted the "Who What When Minstrels" the best minstrel organization ever seen in Detroit.—Detroit, Michigan Free Press.

Public attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. A. V. Russell in which he announces the inauguration of a real estate and rental business. We bespeak for him success with his enterprise and cheerfully commend him to those having business in that line.

Among the guests from a distance who attended the Lancaster-Cralle marriage were: Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Owen, of South Boston; Mrs. Fannie McIlwaine, of Roanoke, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Robertson, of Blackstone; Rev. James Lancaster, of Perth Amboy, N. J.; and Mrs. Bettie Venable, of Hampden-Sidney.

Mr. C. C. Fleming, who has been quite sick for the past ten days went to Richmond Tuesday for treatment and where he will have the ministrations of mother and sisters. The friends of Mr. Fleming hope for his speedy recovery and return to Farmville. He was accompanied to Richmond by Dr. Winston.

We ask the attention of our many lady readers to the advertisement of Messrs. R. W. Garnett & Co., in which they announce a special sale, for ten days only, of cloaks and ladies' skirts. These goods are elegant in material and make-up, of the newest and most stylish patterns, and the assortment is ample to meet any and all requirements. The sale commences next Monday, October 6th.

Be good enough to remember that the Herald has more room for news and advertising, and that ought to mean more subscribers. Subscriptions like charity, ought to begin at home. If it isn't just handy to flag in a whole dollar for a whole year's reading of the Herald, for a whole year's news, for a whole year's entertainment, for a whole year's pleasure, for a whole year's benefit, for a whole year's joy, for a whole year's peace, for a whole year's happiness, for a whole year's success, for a whole year's glory, for a whole year's triumph, for a whole year's victory,
